BASEBALL CHAT.

How strange it must feel to the Giants to be seeding that third position in the League race. It is hard to have to resort to that ancient claim, but truly, Umpire Frank Dever is responsible for the change. His decisions in the first game were very much off and the derision of the fans was not uncalled for. The official's had rulings are really too numerous to mention.

Crawford, the "Heinie's" right fielder, showed pasterday that he is something of a hitter. He name to bat five times in the first game and every time laced out a safe one. One was a bissier and another a triple.

The way Taylor lobbed up that slow ball of his the despised lot was truly wonderful. The mesh broke their backs to reach it and them-but set they could do was to make baby filea. I make the difference between Taylor warmed and pitching a game cold.

tendants are selected with the same care.

In an expensive and model establishment such as Mr. Whitney conducts these things are possible, and so Nasturtium receives as much care as a mother would give her first born. He is under the charge of Trainer John W. Rogers, and it is safe to say that Mr. Rogers does not relish the job. That is to say the care of a $50,000 two-year-old of whom great things are to be asked and expected is a tremendous responsibility.
